

WILSON ACCEPTS GERMANY'S PROMISE

U. S. Relies on Scrupulous Execution of Altered U - Boat Policy

LANSING CABLES NOTE

Cannot Entertain Suggestion Regarding Conduct of Any Other Government

SECRETARY GIVES STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, May 8.—A note cabled by Secretary Lansing to Ambassador Gerard today for delivery to the Berlin foreign office informs the German government that the United States accepts its declaration of abandonment of its former submarine policy and now relies upon a scrupulous execution of the altered policy to remove the principal danger of an interruption of the good relations existing between the two countries. With this acceptance is coupled formal notice to Germany that the United States cannot for a moment entertain, much less discuss, a suggestion that respect by German naval authorities of the rights of citizens of the United States on the high seas should in the slightest degree be made contingent upon the conduct of any other government affecting the rights of neutrals and non-combatants. This is in reply to the concluding statement in the last German note, to the effect that while submarine commanders had been ordered to sink no peaceful freight or passenger carrying ships, without warning or without safety for passengers and crew the German government would reserve to itself complete liberty of decision unless the United States was successful in its efforts to break the British blockade.

Lansing Issues Statement

Secretary Lansing issued a statement tonight saying that the greater part of Germany's answer to the demand of the United States was devoted to matters which the American government could not discuss with the Berlin government but he considered Germany had "yielded to our representations" and that "we can have no quarrel with her," so long as the altered policy is lived up to.

Text of Note to Germany

"The note of the imperial German government under date of May 4th, 1916, has received careful consideration by the government of the United States. It is especially noted as indicating the purpose of the imperial government as to the future, that it is prepared to do its utmost to confine the operation of the war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of the belligerents," and that it is determined to impose upon all its commanders at sea limitations of the recognized rules of international law upon which the government of the United States has insisted.

"Throughout the months which have elapsed since the imperial government announced on February 4, 1915, its submarine policy, now happily abandoned, the government of the United States has been constantly guided and restrained by motives of friendship in its patient efforts to bring to an amicable settlement the critical questions arising from that policy. Accepting the imperial government's declaration of its abandonment of the policy which has so seriously menaced the good relations between the two countries, the government of the United States will rely upon a scrupulous execution henceforth of the now altered policy of the imperial government such as will remove the principal danger to an interruption of the good relations existing between the United States and Germany.

"The government of the United States feels it necessary to state that it takes it for granted that the imperial government does not intend to imply that the maintenance of its newly announced policy is in any way contingent upon the course or result of diplomatic negotiations between the government of the United States and other belligerent governments' note of the fourth instant might appear to be susceptible of that construction. In order, however, to avoid any possible misunderstanding, the government of the United States notifies the imperial government that it cannot for a moment entertain, much less discuss, a suggestion that respect by German naval authorities for the rights of citizens of the United States upon the high seas should in any way or in the slightest degree be made contingent upon the conduct of

MEN MISSING SINCE RAID REACH MARATHON

TROOPER WAS BELIEVED KILLED AND CIVILIAN KIDNAPPED BY BANDITS

Two Troops of Cavalry Move on to Glenn Springs, Scene of Mexican Bandit Raid—Military Men Do Not Think Another Punitive Expedition Possible.

Marathon, Texas, May 8.—Private Roscoe Tyree and O. G. Compton, missing since the raid on Glenn Springs by Mexican bandits Friday night, arrived here late this afternoon in company with Sergeant Smythe. They were brought here on a motor car from Glenn Springs. Anxiety had been felt for these two men as Tyree disappeared after the raid and Compton had been reported taken into Mexico by the marauders. It is believed now that the man reported kidnapped with John Deemers from below Boquillas was named Coy.

Two troops of American cavalry swung southward this afternoon into the Big Bend country moving on to Glenn Springs, the scene of the Mexican bandit raid Friday night. The one hundred and more cavalrymen belonging to Troops A and B of the Eighth cavalry are under the command of Major George Langhorne. Two troops of the Fourteenth cavalry, commanded by Col. F. W. Sibley from Fort Clark go forward tomorrow.

A strict censorship is enforced to screen the troop movements in the field campaign in whatever form it takes in the pursuit of the Villa brigands or in the protection of border from further attacks. Captain Caspar Cole with twenty-three men of Troop A is now scouting the river country where the bandits recrossed the river in their flight after the attack on Glenn Springs and Boquillas. His observations and reports of the bandit movements are to be sent to Major General Funston that a plan for future action may be developed. Many unconfirmed reports are current tonight at Boquillas that bodies of bandits are operating in numbers on the Mexican side. The number of cavalrymen under present orders to proceed toward the river indicates that no effort will be made to pursue the bandits into Mexico unless they are observed near the border. In that event a chase into Mexican territory may be attempted that might carry the American forces fifty or more miles into Coahuila.

Lack of transportation and properly defended lines of communication preclude any extended pursuit into Mexico and military men here do not think another punitive expedition possible because of the lack of cavalrymen. The last body of Villistas recrossed the Rio Grande Saturday morning and they are now probably forty miles south of the river. "It would take a brigade of at least 3,000 men to form an expedition into Mexico to effective cope with the situation," said an army officer here today, just before the troops moved toward Glenn Springs. "The four troops of cavalry that are going in can do little more than offer protection to the border and there are no more troops of cavalrymen that we can draw upon."

It was learned here today that after the raid on Glenn Springs the bandits split their forces into two bodies, one heading toward the Rio Grande about 5 o'clock Saturday night and disappeared into Mexico. The United States signal corps is erecting a telegraph wire south from here to Glenn Springs.

REPORT GERMAN SUBMARINE TORPEDOED LINER CYMRIC

Fate of Ship Is Not Known, Altho an Early Message Stated Steamer Was Sinking.

London, May 8.—The 13,000 ton White Star liner Cymric which for some time has been engaged in freight service, has been torpedoed by a German submarine, according to advices received here. One report says that the Cymric was attacked in the Atlantic, and the information of the White Star company at Liverpool is that the steamer was torpedoed about noon today. The Cymric left New York April 29 with an enormous cargo of war munitions. As she usually makes the voyage from New York to Liverpool in ten days she was, therefore, within a day or two of her destination. It is considered probable, in the absence of definite details, that the disaster to the Cymric occurred off the west coast of Ireland, but whether on the northerly or southerly route cannot be stated.

The fate of the steamship is not yet known, altho an early message received in London reported that the Cymric was sinking. The crew aboard numbered about one hundred men, but the steamer carried no passengers.

VOTE TO GO ON STRIKE

Chicago, May 8.—Members of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America decided by unanimous vote tonight to go on strike tomorrow morning according to Frank Rosenblum, member of the executive board of the union for the Chicago district. It was said that 15,000 men would be out by the end of the week.

War News Summarized

The White Star Line Steamer Cymric, bound from New York for Liverpool, is reported to be in a sinking condition somewhere at sea. Her owners in Liverpool say that from reports received by them they believe the vessel was torpedoed. The Cymric carried no passengers.

An entire system of trenches on the northern slope of Hill 304 northwest of Verdun has been captured by the Germans, according to Berlin, and the French in the fighting suffered extraordinarily heavy casualties. In addition 49 officers and 1,184 soldiers were taken prisoner. Paris reports that to the east of the hill the Germans were driven from a communication trench which they previously had penetrated, and that to the west of the hill, a German assault against French positions at Hill 287, was put down by the French fire.

A heavy bombardment is in progress against Avocourt wood and the entire region of Hill 304, while to the east of Verdun and in the Woerpe the artillery activity continues vigorous. Around the Thiamont farm, north of Verdun a French attack broke down and 300 prisoners were taken.

The Germans on the Russian front launched an offensive to the south of Ilukst against the Russians, but met with no success. Mine fighting and bombardments continue at various points along this line. In Galicia to the northwest of Tarnopol, the Russians captured a mine crater from the Teutons. In the fighting in Asia Minor the Russians have compelled the Turks to withdraw from their entire first line trenches in the region of Erzingan.

Attacks by the Austrians against the Italians in the Marmolada, Fazarago and other sectors were repulsed. The bombardment in the Adamello region continues. Here the Italians have destroyed an Austrian defense work on Col Topele. The Turkish Breslau is reported by Petrograd to have been captured. The town is described as an unfortified health station. The entente allied front in France has been strengthened by the arrival of Australian and New Zealand troops who have taken over a portion of the front. Four more leaders in the Irish revolt have been executed.

MANY CITIES OBSERVE BABY HEALTH CONFERENCE WEEK

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 8.—Cities and villages all over Illinois are observing Baby Health Conference week which began today. Conspicuous among the towns which have arranged baby contests are Danville, Elgin, Paris, Galesburg, Rushville, Rochelle and Pontiac. Bloomington had a big baby conference last week. The biggest contest of all is planned to be held in September in conjunction with the Illinois State Fair here. The state board of health and the state board of agriculture are working together to make this one a success, according to Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the state board of health.

Scoring sheets and other literature designed to aid managers of baby contests have been sent out in large quantities to club women and medical societies over the state.

FIND THREE GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY TO DESTROY MUNITIONS SHIPS

Judge Will Impose Sentence on Robert Fay, Walter Scholz and Paul Daecho Today.

New York, May 8.—The jury which for ten days heard testimony at the trial of Robert Fay, former lieutenant in the German army; Walter Scholz and Paul Daecho, charged with conspiracy to destroy munitions ships thru bomb contrivances, returned a verdict of guilty tonight against the defendants.

The jury deliberated on the case for five hours and in reaching a verdict asked for clemency in behalf of Daecho, who, according to his own statements, and those of Fay and Scholz, was an employee of Fay and knew little of the details of the fire bomb plots.

The defendants each are liable to a maximum sentence of twelve years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. Judge Howe announced he would impose sentence tomorrow morning. The defendants were found guilty on two indictments.

Fay and Scholz were returned to the toms, but Daecho was released under $25,000 bail. Fay declared his lawyers would appeal from the verdict. The government charged that Fay was the leader in the conspiracy and that Scholz and Daecho aided him.

ORDERS EXTENSION OF LINE

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—In an order made public today by the public utilities commission the Decatur Railway & Light company is directed to extend to the Eldorado street car line in Decatur from the corner of William and Seventh streets north to the southerly right of way of the Wabash railway.

The Galgate was last reported as having arrived at St. Michaels April 24. She was 2,361 tons gross.

EXPECT CARRANZA TO PUNISH RAIDERS

Lansing Forwards Representations to de facto Government

HOPE FOR CO-OPERATION

Texas Raid Apparently Places Withdrawal of Troops Further in the Future

NO AGREEMENT IS REACHED

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Administration officials are hopeful that effective co-operation between Mexican and American troops to exterminate the band of Mexican outlaws which raided Glenn Springs, Texas, last Friday night, will follow the conclusion of the conference at El Paso between Generals Scott and Obregon. In the meantime both at the war and state departments it was stated officially that General Funston had full authority to send his troops across the border on any hot trail.

Do Not Comment on Reports

Officials would not comment on border reports saying that General Funston had repeatedly urged that his forces be kept in the border from General Carranza's raid still was assumed to be in force. Only the status of the present expedition is involved, it was said, in the present diplomatic situation and in the Scott-Obregon military discussion at El Paso.

The Washington government was still without official notification tonight as to Carranza's attitude toward the Scott-Obregon plan. It was assumed from the fact that another conference between the two officers was held today, however, that he had accepted the proposals.

Lansing Forwards Representations

Secretary Lansing forwarded representations to Carranza thru special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City last night when news of the Glenn Springs raid was confirmed. The de facto government was notified of the facts of the raid and it was indicated that Mr. Rodgers was instructed to inform Mexican officials that the United States assumed that they would take prompt steps to capture and punish the raiders.

The agreement reached at El Paso it has been stated provides no time limit for withdrawal of troops, but rests that time upon a demonstration of the ability of the Carranza forces to protect the international line. The Texas raid apparently places the fulfillment of the condition further in the future.

Consul Blocker's message regarding the Glenn Springs fight said the bodies of Deemer and Coy, the two civilians slain, had been found with the throats cut. The other civilian reported killed was the Compton boy. The message estimated the force of the raiders at 100 and said the women of Glenn Springs had been sent to Marathon by motor truck.

No Agreement Is Reached

El Paso, Texas, May 8.—Today's conference between Generals Scott and Funston and General Obregon, Mexican minister of war and Juan Amador, sub-secretary of foreign affairs ended late today without an agreement having been reached. It was indicated, however, that efforts to effect an understanding regarding the status of the American troops in Mexico had not been abandoned and that another conference would be held.

Today's meeting took place in General Scott's private car on the American side. When or where the next meeting would be held was not disclosed.

When General Obregon returned to Juarez in his touring car, he was asked:

"Is the conference ended?"

"He smiled, shrugged his shoulders and replied: 'It is just beginning.'"

In El Paso tonight, the feeling grew that the situation has taken on

HOUSE REJECTS SENATE AMENDMENTS TO BILL

ARMY MEASURE IS RETURNED TO CONFERENCE

Proposals to Empower President to Raise Standing Army to 250,000 in Time of Peace and Raise Federal Volunteer Army of 261,000 Are Rejected Flatly.

Washington, May 8.—Senate amendments to the army bill were rejected today by the house and the measure returned to conference. The proposals to empower the president to raise the standing army to 250,000 men in time of peace, and to raise a federal volunteer army of 216,000 were rejected flatly by votes of 221 to 142 and 251 to 109, respectively, while the nitrate plant amendment was substituted by one offered by Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee without a record vote.

Substitution of the nitrate plant amendment came after a hard fight by opponents of the senate proposal, led by Representative Lenroot, Republican of Wisconsin who maintained that the waterpower lobby was responsible for it. The plant proposed under the Hay amendment would be operated exclusively by the government and "not in conjunction with any other industry or enterprise carried on by private capital and the president would be empowered to select the site. These provisions were intended to silence the critics of the measure who maintained that Alabama mussel shoals property owners were to be made the direct beneficiaries of the senate amendment.

The president also would be authorized by the Hay amendment to investigate various methods of making nitrate both by waterpower and otherwise and to order a plant erected for the use of the one he finds most feasible, to proceed with the operation of the plant and to sell its byproducts. The initial appropriation for the plant would be $20,000,000, or $5,000,000 more than the senate amendment would have provided, and the money would be raised by the sale of Panama Canal bonds. They would become payable in not more than 50 years.

Thirty Democrats voted against the 250,000 army feature of the bill. The lineup on it was virtually the same as it had been previously when the question was before the house. It is now believed that the conferees will agree to some compromise on the standing army for about 175,000 men.

ASSERTS FORMATION OF WOMAN'S PARTY WILL NOT TAKE PLACE

Mrs. Cat States Such a Step Would Not Be Necessary in Order to Obtain Enfranchisement.

Minneapolis, May 8.—Formation of a woman's political party will not take place this year despite reports to the contrary, according to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, who in an address before the Mississippi Valley suffrage conference today asserted that such a step would not be necessary in order to obtain national enfranchisement.

Miss Harriet Vittum, speaking on conditions in Illinois, declared that better men have been elected to office, women have acquired a keener interest in civic affairs, educational facilities have been improved and living conditions bettered as a result of woman suffrage.

Mrs. Harrison Monroe Brown also told of the work which had been done in Illinois, saying some of the results were the abolition of twelve hundred saloons, the bettering of community morals and the cleaning of streets and alleys.

The campaign being conducted in Iowa in behalf of woman suffrage which will be voted upon there June 5, was discussed at length today and an appeal for financial aid by Dr. Effie McCullough Jones of Waterloo met with prompt response.

A woman arose from the audience and announced she would donate $10 toward the fund.

The hat was passed and the Iowa campaign was benefited by $1,361.10.

DESIRES EFFORT TO KEEP PEACE

Wilson Hopes for Joint Action By Nations of the World

HEARS ANTI-MILITARISTS

Executive Tells Callers a Helpless Nation Would Be Negligible in Peace Conference

NOT IN DANGER OF MILITARISM

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Hope that at the end of the present war the nations of the world would undertake a joint effort to keep the peace, backed by a common police force, was expressed by President Wilson today in an interview with a committee of the American Union Against Militarism which called to protest against his preparedness program and advise him that they had found a fear of militarism in the country west of the Alleghenies. The president told his callers that a helpless nation would be negligible in a conference to establish the foundation for peace. He said there was a difference between preparedness and militarism, that the country was in no danger of the latter, and in response to a question declared that compulsory military training was not contrary to American tradition. The committee insisted that on account of his office the president most frequently addressed audiences from the upper class and that the response he received upon the proposal to increase the military were misleading him as to the true sentiment of the country.

Not Against Sane Preparedness.

The committee was headed by Miss Lillian D. Wald, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Amos R. E. Pinchot, all of New York city; A. A. Berlo of Cambridge, Mass., and John A. McSharran, legislative chairman of the National grange, who presented a memorial setting forth that while the union did not stand against sane or reasonable preparedness nor for peace at any price, it was convinced that the big army and navy programs were a menace to Democracy. The president was informed that these views had been voiced in ten great cities of the middle west and had met with enthusiastic endorsement.

When the spokesmen of the delegation had supplemented their memorial by brief speeches the president replied, and for an hour listened to and answered their questions.

"I have never dreamed for a moment that America as a whole, its rank and file had got any military enthusiasm or militarist spirit," said the president, "and I think that it is very necessary, in order that we should work this thing out wisely, that we should carefully discriminate between reasonable preparation and militarism; because, if you use the two words interchangeably, then, of course, the reasonable things that we ought to do take on a wrong and sinister appearance and we seem to be working for the wrong things when we are in reality working only for the right, that is the necessary things that are unavoidable in the circumstances. I think it would be a disservice not to recognize that there is a point of reasonable preparation and that you can go to that point without changing the spirit of the country or violating its traditions. For the traditions of the country have not been those of a military helplessness, they have been those of anti-militarism.

Bodies of Opinion Hard to Assess.

The currents of opinion or rather, the bodies of opinion in this country are very hard to assess. For example, Mayor Mitchell of New York city and a group of gentlemen associated with him made a turnout not unlike that which you had and had meetings and they came back and reported in most enthusiastic terms a unanimous opinion not very distinctly for universal military training, which of course, is a very different thing. "Now I quite see the danger that Mr. Pinchot perceives in the laws that he referred to because they seem to associate military training with public authority and to draw that training into some sort of connection with military organization. It is not inconsistent with American training that everybody should know how to shoot and take care of himself; on the contrary, that is distinctly implied in our bills of rights, where the right to carry arms is reserved to all of us. There is no use carrying arms if you do not know what to do with them.

"I should say it was not inconsistent with the traditions of the country that the people should know how to take care of themselves, but that it is inconsistent with the traditions of the country that their knowledge

The people of Jacksonville a year ago elected the present mayor and commissioners. This election was an indication of the confidence of the people in the business judgment and honesty of the men. In the intervening period they have done nothing to forfeit this good opinion. The city council has investigated the city's needs carefully and has outlined in a public statement what improvements are desired and how these can be attained by the issuance of bonds. If you still have confidence in the men who are conducting city affairs, if you believe in their honesty and in their business judgment, the way to express that confidence is by a vote for the bonds.

A Sad War Result.

Reports received from Germany, thru publications and private advices, show an increase of crime and brutality among the young as a result of the war. The central committee for the care of juveniles in Berlin has published statistics which show that misdemeanors and crimes, especially among young boys, have increased 100 per cent over the figures of peace years. The alarming change is attributed to the industrial and social conditions brought about by the war.

The family life, in a general way, has ceased to exert any normal influence, according to one authority. Many families have been broken up. The mothers, driven into gainful occupations by the necessities of living, leave the children alone or in the care of other children. "It is time," declares Vorwaerts, a leading Berlin paper, "that all who take an interest in the education of the young should come back to themselves and make an effort to draw attention away from the destructive war, in order to direct the children's minds more persistently to the constructive work of peace."

Prevention Better Than Fire Loss.

The agitation for greater care about fires and the general fight made against carelessness by fire companies and city fire departments has effected a considerable reduction in fire losses during recent years. The smaller per cent of fires in European countries than in the United States has often been pointed out and the reason for the difference shown to be the greater care shown by the public generally. It is in the furtherance of the good work of preaching that most fires are preventable that the National Fire Prevention association was organized. The convention is now in progress in Chicago. The slogan that prevention is better than cure is catching hold in many communities that have failed to heed the fire warning in the past, and every section is represented at the twentieth annual gathering.

TIN CANS.

In olden days, the which I praise, as warmly as I'm able, we raised our beans and other greens out back of the stable. A garden plot behind his cot each man inaugurated, and there he'd raise the peas and maize, and vines with pumpkins weighted. There'd would toil, and slung the soil, his busy boys around him, and he'd have beets and kindred eats when wintry tempests found him. This good old plan by modern man, no more, alas, is followed; but at the store he blows his ore for everything that's swallowed. He used to pluck the garden truck, and eat it fresh and juicy, and there was lots for all the tots, for Jake and Bill and Lucy. His grocer's bill then didn't kill, it was no grief to meet it; his bill of fare was rich and rare, and no hotel could beat it. In those old days the poorest jays set up the best of tables; but now man eats his greens and beets from cans with gaudy labels.

Daniel.

Funeral services for Mrs. E. A. Daniel were held from Arcadia church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in charge of the Rev. C. A. Fairchild. There was a large gathering of friends and relatives which attested the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community in which she lived. Music was given by a quartet composed of Mrs. McKinney, Miss Marie Brainer, Melvin Smith and Roy Young. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Ivan Hawk and Mrs. Walter Houston. Interment was in Arcadia cemetery, the bearers being Fletcher Hopper, Ivan Hawk, William Jones, Harry Ogle, Walter Houston and R. S. McKinney.

Martha, daughter of James and Izora Lacey, was born in Granger county, Tenn., Dec. 6, 1869, and departed this life May 4, 1916, aged 46 years, 4 months and 28 days. About the year 1876 she came with her parents to Morgan county. February 28, 1890, she was united in marriage to Ezekiel Anderson Daniel. To this union eleven children were born, one of whom preceded her in death. Her husband and the following children survive: James Franklin of Sinclair, Bessie Elizabeth Wade of Chapin, Hattie Iroza Lewis of Alexander, Gracie, George Williams, Theodore Samuel, John, Lou Edna, Ollie May and Mabel Marie at home. Three brothers and one sister also survive: Perry Lacey of Farmersville, Theodore Lacey of Sinclair, Thomas Lacey of Woodson and Mrs. Millie Boatman of Arenzville.

In 1906 Mrs. Daniel united with the Methodist Protestant church under the ministry of the Rev. Mrs. Anna Shively at Arcadia. She retained her relations with that church until her death. When the Arcadia class of that church became extinct she removed her membership to the Grace Chapel church.

Cole.

Funeral services for Clark E. Cole were held from the undertaking parlors of W. W. Gillham at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning. The Rev. G. W. Plagge, pastor of Centenary church, was in charge. Rev. Mr. Plagge offered prayer and read the nineteenth and twenty-third Psalms. The minister spoke briefly from the text, "Great peace have they that love Thy law." The members of Matt Starr post, G. A. R., attended the funeral in a body and held the services at the grave. At the grave Hassel Hopper acted as chaplain. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery the bearers being E. C. Scott, L. Goheen, John Minter, Frank Wiggins, J. A. Schaub and Benjamin Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Snerley of Decatur were in Franklin Sunday, guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Metcalf.

CANDIDATES FOR STATES

ATTORNEY

The contest for the Republican nomination for state's attorney in the September primary promises to be quite spirited. Already two candidates have announced themselves, Carl E. Robinson and Fred L. Gregory. Mr. Robinson took his law course at the law school of the university of Chicago, after graduating from Illinois College in 1909. He was for a time principal of Whipple academy prior to beginning the study of law, and opened his office in Jacksonville immediately after admission to the bar. He has been a resident of the county for eleven years.

Mr. Gregory, who was reared in Jacksonville, attended Illinois college and subsequently took a law course at Ann Arbor. He has been practicing at the Morgan county bar for a number of years and has served several terms as secretary of the Republican county central committee.

FIRE ALARM AT PARK HOTEL.

Smoke issuing from windows of the Park hotel Monday made it appear that the property was on fire and an alarm was sent in to the department. Fire Chief Hunt found that the smoke was from a chimney which had been cut off beneath the roof at the time of some repair work several years since. Mr. Hunt issued an order that use of the chimney flue be discontinued.

added gravity following the bandit raid in the Big Bend district. It was reported on good authority that most of today's conference had to do with the raid and the steps to be taken to break up bandit groups in Northern Coahuila.

Much interest was taken tonight in word reaching here from Marathon regarding a story told by a minister, name unknown, who reached there after an automobile tour thru the district raided last Friday night. According to the story told by this man, the dead body of one of the bandits was found at Glenn Springs Sunday and on it were papers which identified him as a Carranza. No further reports came to General Funston from the raided district in the Big Bend country. The only news of the day was the arrival of two troops of cavalry from Fort Clark and two from El Paso at Marathon where they started southward on a 95 mile march.

General Funston refused to indicate whether a second expeditionary force is to go into Mexico near Boquillas. He said that circumstances made it impossible for him to speak. He was asked if a report from Washington that troops may already have crossed was true. He replied that he believed they had "not yet" gone over.

This afternoon's conference came at the end of a day of rumors and speculations which reached their apex in the report that a split in relations between the United States and Mexico was about to occur because General Obregon was unable to command the support of the various Mexican generals for the tentative agreement. Another story which went the rounds was to the effect that at the Sunday meeting in the immigration station the American conferees had notified the Mexican minister of war that the United States had heeded the limit of its patience and insisted on a speedy undertaking. According to this story, General Obregon was told that the American government would consent to no further concessions and the proposed protocol would have to be signed as drawn up.

FORMER JACKSONVILLE MAN FOUND DEAD IN MISSOURI.

John Smart Jumps From Train near Bowling Green and Dead Body is Discovered near Track.

John Smart, 19 years old, of Bowling Green, Mo., was found dead Saturday morning by the side of the Alton tracks just east of the city. Tho it is supposed that the young man was killed in jumping from a train in motion while on his way home, the verdict of the coroner did not fully establish the mode of death.

Deceased is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Smart and lived in Jacksonville until about a year ago. He was in Jacksonville Friday evening and it is upon the return trip that the accident is thought to have occurred. He was employed as line-man by the Illinois Telephone Co., while here and continued work for a telephone company after removal to Missouri.

Mrs. Leo Stone of Murrayville, a sister of the deceased, and Mr. Stone and T. H. O'Brien of this city were in Bowling Green Monday afternoon to attend the funeral.

WILSON ACCEPTS GERMANY'S PROMISE

any other government affecting the rights of neutrals and non-combatants. Responsibility in such matters is single, not joint, not relative."

Mr. Lansing's statement made public after the note was on its way to Berlin, follows:

"The greater part of the German answer is devoted to matters which this government cannot discuss with the German government. The only questions of right which can be discussed with that government are those arising out of its action or out of our own and in no event those questions which are the subject of diplomatic exchanges between the United States and any other country.

Yields to Representations.

"The essence of the answer is that Germany yield to our representations with regard to the rights of merchant ships and non-combatants on the high seas and engages to observe the recognized rules of international law governing naval warfare in using her submarines against merchant ships. So long as she lives up to this altered policy we can have no reason to quarrel with her on that score, tho the losses resulting from the violation of American rights by German submarine commanders' operating under the former policy will have to be settled.

"While our differences with Great Britain cannot form a subject for discussion with Germany it should be stated that in our dealings with the British government we are acting as we are unquestionably bound to act in view of the explicit treaty engagements with that government. We have treaty obligations as to the manner in which matters in dispute between the two governments are to be handled. We offered to assume mutually similar obligations with Germany, but the offer was declined. When however, the subject of dispute is a continuing menace to American lives it is doubtful whether such obligations apply unless the menace is removed during the pendency of the proceedings."

The treaty with the British government referred to is the convention negotiated by former Secretary Bryan under which the two nations agree that any dispute arising shall be submitted to an investigating commission for one year before entering into hostilities. An offer to enter into such a treaty for Germany brought a request for information but formal negotiations never were instituted.

The hope that the note might end the discussion regarding the conduct of submarine warfare tonight was entertained by some officials and by persons in close touch with affairs at the German embassy. In other official quarters however, there was apparent uncertainty regarding the result which the note might have. A new crisis it was pointed out would arise, should Germany make a rejoinder to the communication and insist that its new policy is contingent upon the United States making certain demands upon Great Britain.

G. O. P. STATE COMMITTEE NOT EXPECTED TO TRANSACT BUSINESS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 8.—Because certificates of election have not been issued to the members of the new Republican state central committee it is not expected that any attempt will be made to transact business at the meeting here tomorrow, called by Chairman Fred Sterling, who was selected, unofficially at the recent Republican state convention at Peoria.

According to Secretary of State Lewis G. Stevenson it will not be possible to issue certificates of election before Thursday as notices of contests filed with him by five candidates at the recent primary have delayed the canvassing board. The law requires the state central committee to meet and organize within thirty days after the primary.

LIGHT COMPANY TO KEEP OPEN HOUSE

PUBLIC INVITED TO PLANT NEXT SATURDAY.

Purpose is to Familiarize the People With Great Improvements Which Have Resulted from Large Expenditures of Money—Plant Now Modern in All Departments.

The Jacksonville Railway and Light company has designated next Saturday, as reception day at the power plant, gas and ice factories. "A grand opening" has been arranged for from 1 until 5 o'clock when the public is invited to inspect the property and to gain a first hand impression of the large improvements which have been made in past two years. The company has expended about $100,000 in the time in the effort to so better and enlarge their plant that adequate and desired service may be given the people of Jacksonville. The opening has been arranged as a fitting celebration of the completion of the remodeling work.

The plant will be a revelation to almost every visitor, for there is not one citizen in a thousand at all familiar with the operations carried on under this roof, whereby gas, electricity and ice are all manufactured for public consumption.

Employees to Show Plant.

The employees of the company, who number thirty or more, will be on hand to explain the work of the various departments and special ushers or conductors will be present to "lead the way" for the visitors. The system of gas making and storage has been completely changed since Supt. Miser took charge of the plant, and the power department includes a battery of boilers which is the pride of the company and the employees familiar with that department. Each of these boilers is rated as 350 horse power but can develop 500 horse power in case of need.

The engine room, which is just east of the boiler room, is now a model of electrical equipment. The machinery has been so changed and augmented that the plant has a capacity fully equal to the every day demands of Jacksonville, with a large surplus to meet emergencies or the needs of the future. The switch board is of the latest pattern, and, in fact, throughout the plant it is evident that the most approved ideas of electrical construction have been followed.

Modern Machinery.

The ice plant will be found one of the most interesting departments to visit. It is a natural adjunct to such an institution as it makes possible the utilization of certain wastes. This plant is of the most modern type and the ice produced by the best known process is the purest which can be manufactured.

The light company will take great pleasure in having citizens of Jacksonville inspect their property. The company is one of the very largest tax payers here, gives employment to a large number of people and is vastly interested in the welfare and development of the city. In fact, the view of the company is that their big plant really belongs to the people and they are very desirous of having everybody in the city become familiar with the splendid equipment which is at their disposal.

of arms should be used by a governmental organization which would make and organize a great army subject to orders, to do what a particular group of men might at the time think it was best to have do it. That is the militarism of Europe, where a few persons can determine what an armed nation is to do. That is what I understand militarism to be. But a nation acquainted with arms is not a militaristic nation unless there is somebody who by an order, can determine what we shall do with that force. I think we ought to be very careful not to let these different things seem as if they were the same.

President Opposes Militarism

"When you commence to ask how much preparation you can make, that merely is a matter of judgment and I do not see how you can find any absolute standard upon which to determine that question. Take Mr. Eastman's suggestion that we might have some arrangement by which the border of Mexico can be patrolled; there are not men enough in the existing American army to patrol that border. There is the mere physical fact. When things are at stakes and sevens in a neighboring country, as in Mexico and everybody apparently a law unto himself, there are not men enough to safeguard that border. Yet it is obviously the right thing to do to keep the disorders of one country from flowing over to disturb the peace of another country. That is not militarism; that is necessity. I do not need to tell you that I am just as much opposed to militarism as any man living—I think it is a deadly thing to get into the spirit of a nation and I do not think there is the slightest danger of its getting into the spirit of this nation—only I have to determine a very practical problem. I have to determine how large an army is not unreasonable for the United States. The largest army proposed, that of the Chamberlain bill is 250,000 men, and as compared with any European standard that is extremely small in a nation of a hundred millions. So unless you re-

Every line and curve of an American Lady Corset has a purpose, and can only perform its work of beautifying, when worn by the individual figure, for which it is intended.

gard it as a prophesy, there is nothing extravagant in an army of 250,000. The traditions of American people have always been for a very powerful navy. We have never been jealous of the navy even in our most sensitive moments."

One of the members of the committee asked if the navy had not been increased tremendously.

"Not tremendously," President Wilson replied. "You see our tasks have increased tremendously; that amount of sea that we have found it necessary to police to take care of our distant possessions and be ready for exigencies of the most ordinary kind, quite independently of war has increased tremendously."

"As to the general thing we are all most profoundly interested in, and that is peace; we want the peace of the world. Now I do not know, I cannot speak about what I am going to speak about with any degree of confidence; I do not suppose any man can—but a nation which by the standards of other nations, however, mistaken those standards may be, is regarded as helpless, is apt in general counsel to be regarded as negligible, and when you go into a conference to establish foundations for the peace of the world you must go in on a basis intelligible to the people you are conferring with."

FORECAST HALF BILLION BUSHEL WHEAT CROP

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE ISSUES REPORT

Yield is 155,000,000 Bushels Less Than Last Year—Acreage is Much Smaller and Severe Winter Caused Heavy Abandonment of Acreage Planted Last Fall.

Washington, May 8.—Almost half a billion bushels is the winter wheat harvest forecast for this year by the department of agriculture in its May crop report. This is 155,000,000 bushels less than harvested last year when a world's record crop was gathered in the United States, but the crop this year is growing on a much smaller acreage and the severe winter caused a heavy abandonment of the acreage planted last fall. In all, 4,236,000 acres were abandoned, leaving for harvest 33,930,000 acres which is 7,433,000 acres less than harvested last year.

"The heaviest abandonment occurred," the department reported, "in the important group of winter wheat states extending from Ohio thru Indiana to Illinois, where it reached its maximum intensity, and thru Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri, ranging from 18 percent in Ohio and Iowa to 33 percent in Illinois. This abandonment was due principally to late seeding on a wet and poorly prepared seed bed, followed by a winter of unusual vigor. Sleet and storms in January, followed by severe cold weather, formed an ice sheet that remained in many sections until April, killing much of the wheat growth, and a cold dry spring over the western part of these states gave little assistance to the plant in overcoming its earlier handicaps.

"The activity of the green bug during the winter in Texas with a severe winter drought caused an abandonment of 33 percent of the sown acreage in that state, in Montana and Washington conditions similar to those in the central states caused a loss of 25 and 20 percent respectively. California also shows an abandonment of 20 percent.

"Present conditions of growth are poorest in the central group of states where winter killing was most severe, the conditions ranging from 23 percent below the ten year average condition at this season in Illinois down to 10 percent below in Iowa.

"In Montana and Washington the condition is 11 percent below the ten year average. Elsewhere abandonment is slightly greater and conditions poorer than usual, except that in Nebraska and Kansas and a few other important wheat states, it is a trifle better than usual.

"The Atlantic Coast crop is generally fair to good. The increase over the condition figure of 78.3 percent last month is due partly to the elimination of the abandoned acreage from consideration in determining the present condition.

"The Hessian fly reported as active in many sections last fall is not seemingly much in evidence, although reported from scattered localities, particularly in Central Kansas. Mention is made of the presence of the green bug in North Central Oklahoma, but the parasites of this insect are present also and it is hoped will limit the damage it might otherwise do.

"Acreage abandonment in the east central states would have been probably somewhat greater except that weather conditions interfered with spring field work and the hay seeded in winter wheat is showing a favorable stand that many farmers prefer to accept an unprofitable wheat crop rather than lose the good catch of hay."

Other details of the May report show:

Rye: Condition 88.7 percent of a normal, compared with 87.8 on April 1 last, 93.3 on May 1 last year, and 90.6 the 10-year May 1 average.

Meadow (hay) Lands: Condition 88.4 percent of a normal, compared with 89.8 on May 1 last year, and 88.3 the 10-year May 1 average.

Hay: Stocks of hay on farms May 1 are estimated at 11,049,000 tons, or 13.0 per cent of last year's crop, against 8,468,000 tons, or 12.1 per cent on May 1 last year, and 8,109,000 tons, or 12.1 percent the 5-year May 1 average.

Pastures: Condition 55.2 percent of a normal, against 57.2 on May 1 last year, and 55.9, the 10-year May 1 average.

Spring Plowing: Was 70.4 percent completed up to May 1, compared with 78.3 on May 1 last year, and 68.6, the 10-year May 1 average.

Spring Planting: Was 56.7 percent completed up to May 1, compared with 65.3 on May 1 last year, and 55.9, the 10-year May 1 average.

MR. SCHAFER'S CAR HAS BEEN RECOVERED

Auto Was Located Few Miles From Springfield—William Hale the Offender and Declares He Only Intended Joy Ride in His Uncle's Machine.

The automobile of C. J. Schafer, manager of Swift & Co., of this city, which was taken from in front of the Grand opera house Saturday evening, was found Sunday four miles west of Springfield. The machine was headed toward Jacksonville but the gas tank was empty and it cost Mr. Schafer $10 to get the car back home.

William Hale is accused of taking the machine. Oliver Hamm to whom Hale is paroled told Chief Davis Monday morning that Hale took the machine thinking it belonged to Hamm, who is his uncle. It is alleged that Hale took the machine and in company with a girl named Gilpin went to Springfield on a pleasure trip. Mr. Schafer has not decided whether or not he will prosecute the case.

COUNCIL STANDS PAT WITH LIGHT COMPANY

No More Grants to Company While Public Improvements Are Opposed—Water Main Contract Let to C. C. Schuerman—Officers' Reports.

The petition of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company for permission to lay gas mains on certain streets came to city council in new form Monday morning. They were petitions from the gas company, accompanied by the signatures of property owners and residents along the streets on which it is proposed to lay the mains. The petition for the extension of the main on East State street within the boulevard was referred to Commissioner Cox with power to act. All other petitions were given the same reception as the previous request from the company and were received and placed on file. The council by this action reiterated the action taken at a former session, that there will be nothing doing so far as permits to the light company are concerned until some understanding is reached about the company's attitude toward public improvements. Some officers' reports were presented and contracts for laying water main on Independence avenue and Hooker street were awarded to C. C. Schuerman.

Gas Company Petition Filed.

The action on petitions came very soon after the opening formalities. The petition with reference to East State street asked that authority be given for the extension of the gas main from the residence of Capt. F. C. Taylor, 852 East State, to that of M. A. Carlisle, 896 East State street, with service connections for J. F. Kellogg, M. A. Martin and M. L. Faugust. This petition on motion of Mr. Martin was referred to Mr. Cox. Then came the petition from the gas company for permission to lay the so-called "booster" gas main, designed to increase the supply for west side residents. This petition was signed by residents and property owners on South Fayette street, Anna street and West State street. The residents and property owners who signed with the gas company were Mrs. G. W. Creamer, Eva P. Green, Mrs. B. Green, Mrs. S. Tindick, Ida and John McCrea, James Hairgrove, agent; William McCurley, M. M. Hickox, Peter Tilton, Thomas Abel, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Richard Towers, W. H. Dalton, W. M. King, executor; R. I. Dunlap, trustee; R. T. Cassell, E. M. Johnston, E. W. Brown, H. B. Carriel, W. T. Capps, Alexander Smith, Ida Joy, M. M. Rowe, Lucia Ayers, M. F. Dunlap, May Hockenhull, J. W. Lane, E. B. Wiswell, Joseph Jackson, L. W. Chambers, Mrs. C. A. Catlin, G. W. Moore, Alden Brown, E. W. Green, M. P. Ayers esate, H. B. Carriel, Mrs. William Barr Brown, Mrs. Emma Cunningham, Dr. Grace Dewey, Frank Elliott, Mrs. Cornelia Sanders, Miss Effie Epler, Miss Grace Carter, Miss Lucy Barr, E. E. Hatfield, J. S. Hackett.

Mayor Tells Council Position.

Mayor Rodgers stated before the action on the petition that he had heard a few complaints since February about the lack of gas pressure and while the improvement was desired, that he did not believe the interest of the residents would be injured by awaiting action, as they had already been waiting about fifteen years. He said that it was important to have the relation between the gas company and the city cleared up before any favorable action could be taken on a petition of this kind. The members of the council made no statements but evidently agreed with the mayor as the action on the petition was by unanimous vote.

Mr. Martin reported that the results of clean up week had not been wholly satisfactory as the weather was not very favorable, but that good progress was being made in cleaning up the alleys and streets. Mr. Cox reported that there will be no charge for the dumping ground and that the regular charges had been suspended in order to encourage the spring clean up. He reported trouble with the South Diamond street sewer, especially that portion south of Morton avenue where poplar trees have been planted. He did not think that any permanent relief would be given unless these trees were killed. It seems that when the sewer was laid under the boulevard that the joints were not concreted and as the trees were planted on the surface directly above the sewer, the roots get into the sewer pipe at the joints and stoppage results. The mayor suggested that if possible some other way should be found to give relief than killing the trees.

Water Pipe Contract Awarded.

Mr. Widmayer had no report from his department as he had been out of the city, but made a motion that all properly approved bills be paid when funds are available. Mr. Vascellos made a report recommending that the contract for laying of water pipe on East Independence and Hooker street be awarded to C. C. Schuerman, as his bid was the lowest. This bid was received by mail following the council session Monday morning, May 1. The postmark showed that it had been mailed the day previous and under the law it came within the time limit set for receiving the bids. City Attorney John J. Reeve was present and said that the hearing for West State street pavement is to be had in the county court May 26. He reported to the council that the Railway & Light company has taken the South Main street paving case to the supreme court on a writ of error, resisting the right of the city to make an assessment against the company. The case will be filed in the June term of the supreme court and an answer is expected in October.

The principal contention of the railway and light company in this

WHAT WEAK WOMEN NEED

We Have it in a Remedy Containing The Three Oldest and Most Famous Tonics Known

Vinol contains the three oldest and most famous tonics known to medicine, viz.—the medicinal extracts of fresh cod livers, without oil, peptonate of iron and beef peptonate.

That is why Vinol is such a wonderful remedy for weak, run-down persons, feeble old people, delicate children, and to restore strength after sickness. Read this testimony.

Savannah, Ga. "I was weak, nervous, run down, had no appetite, and could not sleep. I had tried medicine without any benefit, and one day the nurse asked me to try Vinol. I did so and it made me feel like a new woman. It has restored my strength and I can do all my own housework. I would not take anything for the good Vinol has done me."

Sarah White. We return money in every such case where Vinol fails to benefit the purchaser. Lee P. Alcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

GRANDMOTHER'S MEDICINE

Our grandmothers were wise in the virtues of the herbs of the field. They used to gather and store roots and herbs and use them to cure the ailments of their families—wormwood, thoroughwort, sage, rue, camomile—the list might go on and on of the healing plants with which they made us familiar.

Now their grand-daughters get the extracts from just such good old roots and herbs, from the nearest druggist, ready prepared for use. One such medicine, which women find best for their own ailments, is the well-known Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Adv.

Sidney Hatch, the Chicago distance runner, is one of the favorites in the Missouri A. A. marathon at St. Louis today. Mathews of St. Louis, who finished second to him last year, is also a favorite.

"SMOKY" BOWEN'S STRAIGHT BALL TO MUCH FOR JACKSONVILLE

Edwards Hurler Whiffs Thirteen Local Would Be Sluggers—White Pitches Good Ball and Deserves to Win.

"Smoky" Bowen of Edwards was entirely too much for the Jacksonville team in Sunday's game and the locals fell before the Gipsy by a score of 3 to 1. The game was called in the eighth inning to allow the Edwards team to catch a train.

Bowen didn't seem to have anything on the old pill but the summary shows that he made thirteen of the local players fan the air. Jacksonville's run resulted from a single by Christopher, his advance to second on an error, Fernandes single and a wild pitch. Jacksonville ran bases very poorly, over sliding bases and getting caught napping regularly.

Little Charlie White pitched a splendid game and deserved to win but the locals failed to hit Bowen when hits meant runs. A pinch hitter might have been sent in on several occasions, and surely could have done no worse than the regulars, who invariably fanned out when a hit would have scored one or more runs.

Gabe Christman, coaching at third, held Christopher at that station in the seventh and certainly used good judgment, as it was apparent that Christopher would easily have been nailed at the plate. Manager Barr protested that Christopher had touched the man on the coaching line and was out, but Umpire Abell failed to see the play and allowed Christopher to remain on the sack.

GRAND JURY ORGANIZED FOR MAY TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT

Edward White Named as Foreman—
Jury Trials Will Begin Next Week.

The May term of the Morgan county court began Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, with Judge Frank W. Burton of Carlville presiding. The organizing of the grand jury was the first matter given attention. Perry White was named to serve in the place of Mr. Robinson, who had been previously excused from service, all the other jurors on the panel answering when their names were called. Edward White was named as foreman. State's Attorney W. N. Hairgrove then instructed the jury as to its duties. J. R. Kirkman will be in charge of the jury as special bailiff.

The organization of the jury was soon perfected, E. G. Saye being elected as clerk and H. E. Frye as assistant clerk. Summons had been issued for several witnesses and the taking of the testimony of these was at once commenced.

The calling of the common law and chancery dockets consumed the greater part of the afternoon Monday. Several entries were made in the cases in common law, while but a few were made in chancery. The latter fact is probably due to the recent February term of court, chancery cases being the principal ones heard at that time.

On account of the hearing of the case of John W. Davies et al vs. Llewellyn Davies et al, which will probably take up the greater part of the week, the trial jury will not report for duty until Monday, May 15. The first jury panel will only serve for one week, as a jury panel has also been summoned for the third and fourth weeks of the term.

Regarding the Proposed Bond Issue

A two-mill tax will raise the annual payments on the bonds, which would mean a tax not to exceed $2.00 per annum on a $3,000.00 assessment, or $1.00 on a $1,500.00 assessment, house or property. It will be the means of giving us absolutely pure water and better lighted streets than we have now. On a $5,000.00 assessed valuation, the tax would be less than one cent per day. For example—$3,000.00 on full assessed valuation, one-third of which, $1,000.00, is the assessed valuation upon which the taxes are extended. A two-mill tax thereon would produce $2.00 taxes, about a half a cent a day.

City Could Sell Current

The adoption of the Bond Issue will permanently establish the Light and Power Plant, so the City can sell commercial lighting if the public desires to do so. It would give us an Electric Plant of at least 900 Horse Power, total. This would enable the City to sell current or the consumers to obtain electric current at a more reasonable rate than we have now.

Has it occurred to you how steadily our street lighting system is running, with no interruption. Our Water Department is just as constant; except that we are compelled, from lack of proper equipment at the North End Pumping Station, to pump quite often from the Creek at the South Pumping Station. The Bond Issue will allow us to soon close this plant entirely.

New Street Wiring Needed for Safety

Entirely new street wiring is a necessity to properly safeguard us from electric shocks and short circuits. When we get our city lines renewed with properly insulated wires, we then can demand with good grace, that all electric overhead wires be properly insulated by being replaced with new wires.

The Estimated Cost is as Follows

Two 34-inch screens, deep well; direct connected, rotary pumps at north end station.....	$10,000.00
One large receiving reservoir at North station.....	3,000.00
Two miles of 10-inch cast iron water main on Allen, Walnut and Diamond streets to West State street.....	15,000.00
Water tower at west reservoir and motor driven rotary pump and reconnecting pipe line west of Park street to connect with water tower.....	5,000.00
One 2,000,000 gallon rotary, direct connected pump at south station, setting and connecting same.....	3,500.00
This pump to be moved to north pumping station when desired.
One 500 horse power engine, equipment connected direct to 350 K. W. generator.....	48,000.00
New street, wiring and extending same to west reservoir, north pumping and south pumping stations and to the parks.....	10,000.00
Fire-proof buildings for engine and generators at power plant and at north pumping station.....	5,500.00
	$100,000.00

Estimated Savings That Will be Made in Operating the New Equipment Over the Present Equipment.

The adoption of the Bond Issue will enable the City to at once install two Combined Chemical and Pumping Motor Fire Trucks (and pay for them out of the general taxes), which will reduce the operating expense of the Fire Department $2,500.00 per annum; and will enable the department to get to all fires quicker, which will secure for Jacksonville a lower rate of Fire Insurance.

The placing of an electric-driven rotary pump at the South Pumping Station will save at least $3,500.00 per annum there, by closing down the steam part that is there now.

The City Power Plant at present is producing each twenty-four hours, for pumping and street lighting, an average of 4,400 K. W. hours. This continuous load for 365 days in the year is an excellent foundation upon which to base its operations and guarantees a profitable operation. The engine we propose to install is guaranteed to save in fuel cost alone, on the present load of 4,400 K. W. hours, at least $5,000.00 per annum.

The laying of the ten-inch water main over Allen, Walnut and Diamond streets to West State street, in addition to the mains we have now from the North Pumping Station, will be the means of a large saving in

The adoption of this Bond Issue means renewed life and vigor to the people and the City of Jacksonville; it is the way and means, easily and with the least burden upon the community at large, to promptly and properly adjust the various back claims and demands against the City.

It will insure pure water and all we need.
It will insure better and more street lighting.

It will reduce operating expenses practically enough to meet the annual payments on the Bonds.

It will make the Water Tower pressure available so all will have proper service.

Will Cut Interest Budget

It will reduce the City's interest budget, because the general taxes and receipts could be used to quickly pay off the floating indebtedness and the improvement on paving and sewer bond deficit of $22,000.00.

It will save the city the embarrassment of being sued on this deficit, which is long past due, and which by special request has been carried by the owners to July, 1916, at which time we, your Commissioners, hope to be able to properly arrange to take them up and thereby save the City's credit.

It will enable the City of Jacksonville to properly install, improve and equip completely, at one time, a complete and sufficient Water Supply System, including mains, wells, pumps, water tower, reservoir and motors; a complete new street line and wires; and a 500 Horse Power and 350 K. W. direct connected generating unit; housed in fire proof buildings at the Power House and Pumping Station.

For a Permanent Water Supply.

It will enable the citizens of Jacksonville to enjoy these good things, while they are alive and can enjoy them, instead of leaving all this pleasure to their beneficiaries. It is just like renting a good house—you simply pay for the benefit you receive annually, as you enjoy the same.

operating expense, by the reduced friction head and water pressure caused by the enlargement of the mains' capacity.

The engine we propose to install for the City, is guaranteed to produce current for a fuel cost of six mills per K. W. hour. We could sell current at a good profit for seven to eight cents per K. W. H., and lower on a sliding scale.

The above estimates have been carefully gone over and prices submitted on the different articles and equipments. It will require every dollar of this Bond Issue to install and equip this system and every dollar will be spent for this purpose. After the Bond Issue has carried, it will require months of time to properly advertise for bids on the different items and then to receive and install the same. It would take possibly a year before all this work would be completed. It means lots of hard work and pains-taking care; but we will be glad to undertake it and give it our best service, for your benefit.

We, your Commissioners, recommend the adoption of the foregoing Bond Issue by your majority vote.

ASSOCIATED PRESS

CORRESPONDENCE

Nish, Serbia, April—Great numbers of Serbians who fled before the advancing armies of the Central Powers last fall and winter are returning to their former homes. Most of the returning fugitives come from districts along the Montenegrin and Albanian frontiers, over which they found it impossible to accompany the retreating army, and most of them also are of the urban class, as the rural Serbia population for the most part remained at home.

Several carloads of the returning largely destined for Belgrade, and seem cheerful enough at the prospect of getting back to their old homes. Owing to the lack of rolling stock, they are obliged to travel in freight cars, but with the warmer weather the discomfort of this is mitigated. So far comparatively few young men have returned. The armies of occupation are doing what they can to assist in the repatriation.

The Serbian farms, which have been badly neglected since the outbreak of the war, are now being cultivated. The Germans and Austro-Hungarians have brought numbers of steam plows into the country, and the soldiers are everywhere at work, plowing and sowing. Notwithstanding their efforts much land remains fallow, some of this has been so long uncultivated that a vigorous stand of scrub oak has conquered it.

The Serbian women are doing their part in agricultural work. The military commanders have effected a redistribution of the country's livestock by requisitions in those parts not affected by the war, and most of the households again have a cow, some pigs and chickens. Milk and eggs can be bought everywhere. At Nish milk costs about ten cents a liter and eggs eighteen cents a dozen. Meat is scarce but bread may be obtained in any quantity and without bread cards. The women and men are poorly dressed.

Several women with whom the Associated Press Correspondent talked said that they were glad the war had passed beyond Serbia's borders. They wanted to know when their men would return. None had any news of them. It was immaterial to them, they said, who governed Serbia in the future, provided there was no more war. One young woman in city dress, however, held different views and expressed them in fairly good French.

A year ago Serbia was in the clutches of a terrible epidemic of typhus, typhoid fever and other diseases. These, it is asserted, have been completely wiped out. The occupation troops compel the population to obey the sanitary rules established by the military authorities, with the result that Serbian villages have never been so clean. The mud and filth has been carted away, the streets have been covered with gravel and crushed rock. Sanitation in the home is effected through inspection.

Civil government has already been established in the Austro-Hungarian and Bulgarian spheres in Serbia and the Bulgarian territory in Macedonia, but the districts held by the Germans are still under military rule, because, it is said, no permanent occupation of the district is contemplated. Railway traffic and postal service are in the hands of the military authorities, but the Serbian population is permitted to use them. Schools and churches have been reopened in many parts of the country.

While the cold and unseasonable weather, which has prevailed in the east during the past three weeks, has greatly upset both professional and amateur sport schedules it has been a boon for spring football training at the big universities. The candidates have been able to indulge in much harder preliminary work than was the case a year ago when the thermometer was from twenty to thirty degrees higher. Practice is either completed or under way at Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Cornell, Brown, Columbia and other institutions which feature the game and the coaches report large squads and much enthusiasm among both the veterans and the new men who will try for places on the 'varsity elevens' next fall.

The sum of $7,000 which Stanford University students are endeavoring to raise in order to send the 'varsity' crew and track team east this spring appears at first sight to be a large amount of money for the purpose. When it is considered, however, that at least twenty-five athletes will have to make the round trip of 7,000 miles the sum does not loom so big against transportation and board bills for a period of a month or more.

Thomas Marvin, at one time a resident of Jacksonville, was a visitor in the city Monday while on his way to his home in Peoria from a visit in St. Louis.

THE "ENDLESS CHAIN" DANGER OF CATARRH

S. S. S. the Proper Safeguard.

Catarrh is a "cold" in its chronic form. The air is filled with bacteria which is taken into the mouth and nose through the process of breathing. When the body is in a healthy condition no harm results. But with our modern methods of indoor living and sedentary occupations, the mucous membranes are usually not able to "throw off" this harmful bacteria, making catarrh a very common ailment. These germs breed and multiply, causing inflammation, the blood rushes to the membranes to fight off the bacilli. When the blood is in a vigorous condition its "defensive" efforts are successful. Otherwise the cold "hangs on"—turns into catarrh. Catarrh is a chronic inflammation of the mucous membranes. Mucous membranes are the lining on all the internal cavities of the body. Get that—ALL cavities! There is the "endless chain" element of danger. The only way to treat catarrh is to purify the blood. The surest way to purify the blood is to take S. S. S. True Secret of Keeping
Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)
"The real secret of keeping young-looking
and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist,
"is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these regularities, poisonous waste products remain in the system, polluting
the blood and lodging in various organs,
tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese,
nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled
and sallow of face."
"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form.
Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root,
which has been called "vegetable calomel" because of its effectiveness—though, of course, it is not to be classed with the real calomel of ancient origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in "santene" tablets—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to impart tone
and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall.
Santene tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-
troubled person."

The Constipation Curse

Constipation—clogged bowels cause pain and sickness; 95 per cent of our ills, say the authorities.
Santene Laxatives bring quick relief. All vegetable—contain no calomel. Ten doses for a dime at any druggist. Physician's sample free, upon request, if you mention this advertisement. The San-

SELLING BY LEADING HOUSES TURNS WHEAT MARKET DOWNWARD

Close Is Unsettled at ¼ to ½ of a Cent
Net Decline—Corn and Oats Drop.

Chicago, May 8.—Selling which to some extent was based on well founded anticipations that the government
crop report might contain a surprise turned the wheat market downward today after an early advance. The close was unsettled at ¼ to ½ cent net
decline, with May $1.14½ and July $1.15½. Corn lost ¼ to ½¢ to 1½¢, oats ½¢ to ¾¢ and provisions 2½¢ to 10¢.

Contrary to generally accepted
trade predictions, the government
report indicated that a material improvement of the condition of winter wheat had taken place during April. It was in this respect that forecasts of the report were decidedly in error. At the outset of the session, the prevailing view was that the Washington figures on condition would be about the same as last month to a shade lower, and that a large reduction in acreage would make the report a forcible influence against the bears. The bullish nature of the Missouri state report tended to emphasize this view. Suddenly, however, leading houses turned to the selling side with general sentiment afterward appearing in favor of a clean slate before the issue of the government report.

Ideal weather for planting had a bearish effect on corn. There were also prospects of enlarged receipts.
Oats lost snap owing to the break in other cereals. Crop reports were favorable in the main except from Kansas and Oklahoma.

Provisions acted for the most part
in harmony with the course of grain.
Lower prices on hogs appeared to cut but little figure.

BROAD AND ACTIVE DEMAND BRINGS ADVANCE IN STOCKS

Considerable Part of Day's Large Turnover Emanates From Professional Sources, the Short Interest Being Impelled to Cover.

New York, May 8.—The broad and active demand on the resumption of trading today had for its chief incentive the announcement that the government at Washington had decided to accept the submarine concessions contained in the recent German note. There were other favorable developments, including the government report on winter wheat,
which disclosed improved conditions
over a month ago, large traffic gains
by western transportation lines and further copper advances.

In the early trading Mexicans were irregular to heavy as a result of overnight advices from across the border, but recovering in these issues later materially reduced losses.
On the surface, it was apparent that a considerable part of the day's large turnover emanated from professional sources, the short interest being impelled to cover.

United States Steel and other industrials including the war contract division were less active and more irregular than usual. Total sales of stocks amounted to $25,000 shares.

Bonds manifested increased firmness on the demand for railroad issues. Total sales par value $2,690, 000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

"Great Scott! How Did You Ever Grow That Hair!"

BOTH of these men were bald.
One of them has done the miraculous impossible—he has actually grown hair on a scalp that was bald for years.

The other gentleman, who is still bald, can hardly believe this possible. Yet, neither his eyes nor his touch can deceive him. He has discovered, does it. It is absolutely new in principle.

Hair is made up of certain elements. If these elements are not in proper proportion, your hair always loses its growing power, its vitality.
Then your hair falls out, grows
thin, your scalp itches, dandruff
often forms, baldness always follows, and the hair that is left turns gray.

ILLINOIS FARMERS NEED MORE PURE BRED STOCK ON FARMS

Investigations Made For Iowa Association Show How Much Better Are Results When High Class Cattle, Horses and Hogs Are Kept—
A Plan of Organization.

Wallace's Farmer in the current issue has an article on "An Iowa Live Stock Breeders' Association,"
which offers some valuable suggestions for Illinois farmers. In many localities in this state there is great need for a realization of the value of pure bred stock. It costs no more to feed a well bred, high class
animal than one of the "scrub" type.
The article follows.

A farm management survey over
in eastern Iowa showed that live stock farms in Scott county had higher labor incomes than grain farms, and that of the live stock
farms, those with pure-bred stock
excelled those where grade stock
was kept. G. R. Bliss, county agriculturist, in cooperation with a farm management demonstrator of the United States Department of Agriculture, conducted the investigation on seventy representative farms. As Mr. Bliss was studying over these farms, he came to the conclusion that the farmers he served should not only keep more live stock, but more pure-bred stock.

After reaching this conclusion,
Mr. Bliss organized the Scott County
Breeders' Association, which is similar to a few other associations in different parts of the state. The success of a few of these pioneer associations is leading to the organization of others, and it is a work of which good can and has come, both
to individual members and to the counties as a whole.

The Scott county association was organized to further the interests of live stock there, to help advertise
the stock of its members, to encourage the keeping of more stock, and to assist members along breeding lines. Mr. Bliss hopes to make the county as noted for its live stock as crops, and to build up a reputation
which will attract buyers from other counties or states. As a result of the publicity gained thru the organization, requests already have begun to come in for car shipments of dairy cows and good beef cattle. It has assisted members in finding a market for surplus stock, and it has helped those who were in need of stock to buy to advantage.

The association consists of the usual officers, president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and directors. Each breed represented has its director, provided there are at least three members keeping this breed.
The directors are the governing body, and each takes care of business pertaining to the breed in which he is interested. For example, Percheron horses have a representative, and
each of the following cattle breeds
has a director: Angus, Hereford, Holstein, Jersey, Red Polled and Short-horn. A director looks after the interests of Berkshire hogs, and the same is true with the Chester
White, Duroc Jersey and Poland
China. There is a sheep director and one for poultry.

In order to know just where they were at, and what and where the stock was to be had, Mr. Bliss got out a directory in which is listed
all members, grouped according to the breed in which they are interested. This is a booklet of forty-four pages, and one has been put into the hands of every farmer in the county.
Directories from other counties
where there are associations were sent for, so that the Scott county association directory could be sent to hundreds of members of other associations. Likewise, each member of the Scott county organization will receive a directory from the several similar associations. The expense of getting out the directory is met by including enough advertising to pay for its publication, but the space
is confined and sold only to members. The rate was based on the cost of publication of 4,000 copies,
and, as the booklet cost $120, it made the advertising space cost approximately $5 a page.

One of the duties of the secretary
is to prepare a list showing surplus stock for sale, and to revise it every three months, or oftener if conditions seem to warrant. This is distributed to the members, or to anyone who requests to be put on the mailing list. In this way it benefits not only members who have surplus stock for sale, but also the members who are in the market for stock.

To become a member, the one interested must be a reputable resident of Scott county, and own at least one head of pure-bred live stock or poultry. The initiation fee is one dollar, and the dues are a dollar a year. This requirement insures several to buy their first pure-bred stock, which will give them a small start in the keeping of better stock.

In the near future, the association
expects to build a sale pavilion at a central point. Here cooperative sales will be held from time to time,
as conditions warrant. Consignments will be limited to members in good standing. The sales will be advertised under the names of the association, and should attract buyers from more distant points than otherwise would be possible. This feature appeals especially to the breeder who is just starting with pure-breds, or the one who is not making a specialty of the cattle breeding, but yet has a few surplus
head occasionally from his own herd.

Sales are to be largely under the auspices of different groups of breeders, although under the general management of the board of directors.
For example, Short-horn breeders
will work up a sale for their breeds, the Percheron men, one for their horses, and so on. The one pavilion is to answer for all interests.

One of the ways in which the association is promoting the breeding interests is in supporting local calf and colt shows in the county. Many who formerly supported these in a half-hearted way, are now boosting

the movement and are raising stock
to compete at next year's show.
With the association behind the show, it promises to be one which will double its efficiency, be of higher quality than it has been in the past, and be attended by bigger crowds. While the show under the auspices of the farmers' institution
being directly interested is in position to give it more attention.

Another way in which this association will benefit the county as a whole, and individual members, is that its work discourages the crossing of breeds. While it stands for no particular breed, it does not recognize any crosses. The farmer who keeps only grade males, for example, pays little attention to the breeding, often getting the services of a stallion which happens to be the most convenient, be it Percheron, Belgian or Shire. When the same farmer has a pure-bred mare, he looks around to mate her with a stallion of the same breed. The product will be an animal which will cost no more, nor be any more difficult to raise, but will sell for two or three times the figure that a cross from a grade sire would bring. The association will use its influence to promote the keeping of more purebred mares on every farm.

As pointed out elsewhere, the primary object of the association is to boost the live stock interests of Scott county. Much of the land there commands $250 an acre or more,
and the survey previously referred to indicated that grain farmers were finding it difficult to pay 5 per cent interest on the investment with such a high valuation. If the land did manage to return an interest dividend, it failed to return a satisfactory labor income. Farms devoted to stock raising in combination with grain production, paid good interest and returned satisfactory labor incomes, so that Mr. Bliss feels certain if the grain farmers he serves will take advantage of the opportunity,
that they will have more to show
for their work.

In the survey were eighteen farmers who realized 79 per cent of their total receipts from live stock.
These farmers, after paying all expenses, and allowing interest on their investment, had labor incomes of $696 each. Fifteen other farmers realized only 34 per cent of their total receipts from live stock, and
these farmers not only did not receive any labor income, but they failed to pay expenses, which included 5 per cent interest on their investments. The average loss was $25 each, and they worked for nothing. The farmer who had the most live stock, the equivalent of sixty-five full-grown cattle, had a labor income of $2,513, and on eighty-nine acres he raised as much produce as another man who only kept the equivalent of three and a half full-grown cattle on 131 acres.

Mr. Bliss feels that his Scott county farmers are coming face to face with the same problems which are confronting central Illinois farmers, and unless more live stock is kept, the depletion of soil fertility will be continued to such an extent that farm lands will suffer in value the same as they have done
throughout the east, where good crops
are raised only by the use of large quantities of commercial fertilizers.
Says he:

"There are only two alternatives.
Either we must raise live stock in sufficient quantity to cover our lands
with manure every three or four years, or we must resort to commercial fertilizers, and part with a large share of our income in buying rock phosphate, muriate of potash and sodium nitrate. Let us hope the wiser course will be taken and that the crops raised on Scott county
farms will be marketed in the shape
of beef and pork, and that the animals which produce this beef and pork will be of such a quality that they will utilize to the very highest advantage the feeds which are given them."

The live stock association which
Mr. Bliss was instrumental in organizing is simply a means to an end,
the aimed-at result being a system
of working high-priced land on a profitable basis. What seems good for a county with its farm adviser
who points out the way, should be equally good for other counties that do not have these leaders. Individuals can work out such systems for themselves, but they do not have the same opportunity nor the same
incentive as is possible in counties
where live stock associations have been organized and are at work in a systematic way. The time does not seem far off when a majority of Iowa's counties will have these live stock improvement associations.

Our instructions to the famous editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine were: "Get up a book of recipes of the things people like best.
Find the best way to make and bake each one. Then write it out so plainly that even an inexperienced housewife can't have a failure."

"The Cook's Book" was the result. Some of the 90 recipes were originated, many of them were improved upon, and all were personally tested by this best known authority on cooking in America, and she tells so clearly how she made everything that one cannot go astray.

While some of the cakes and pastry are elaborate enough for any occasion, the recipes are all thoroughly practical and call for no expensive and unusual ingredients. In addition to telling how to make them, the book is beautifully illustrated in colors showing how to arrange and serve the dishes appetizingly.

More than half a million of "The Cook's Book" are now in use in American households. Yet the demand is constantly increasing. Many send for two or three at a time to give to friends or young house-

JUDGE BURTON HEARING DAVIES PARTITION SUIT

ATTORNEYS OUTLINED CASE TO COURT MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Contest is Between Heirs in Wales and This Country—Taking of Testimony Likely to Occupy Entire Week.

Judge Frank W. Burton of Carrollville began the May term of Morgan county circuit court Monday afternoon. By agreement there was no docket setting for the first week of the term, the understanding with the attorneys being that the Davies partition suit should be taken up this week. Accordingly Monday afternoon the attorneys made the preliminary statement in this case, which is one of the most complicated and interesting which has come to hearing in the circuit court for a long period. In this case the principal contest is between the so-called English heirs of the late Llewellyn Davies and the American heirs. The attorneys representing the heirs are Kirby, Willis & Brockhouse, Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty and J. P. Lippincott. The English heirs are represented by Judge M. T. Layman and William N. Hargrove of this city and Neger and Gordley of Virginia.

Came to Cass County in 1860.

Mr. Davies died about two years ago, leaving quite a large estate consisting mainly of Morgan county land. He had been a resident of Morgan county about nine or ten years, coming here from Cass county which had been his home since about 1860. Mr. Davies left three sons and two daughters, four of the five being well respected citizens of Morgan county. Subsequent to the death of Mr. Davies and the filing of partition claim was made that there were heirs to the estate living in England and that because Mr. Davies had never secured a divorce from his first wife, whose name prior to marriage was Sarah Bennett, that subsequent marriages were illegal and that the property therefore belonged to the children of the first wife. Some time later, after the claims of both the American and English heirs had been set forth in the court records came the claim of the heirs of Louisa Manchester Davies, the fourth wife of Mr. Davies. They based their claim upon the fact that Mr. Davies had inherited a considerable portion of his property from his fourth wife and predicated it upon the allegation that since there had been no divorce from the first wife, married in Wales, that the marriage to Louisa Manchester was illegal and that Mr. Davies therefore had no proper title to property which she had possessed. The case now on trial has no connection with the Manchester claim save that a finding to show that there had been divorce in the first marriage would do away with their claim that the marriage to Louisa Manchester was illegal.

First Marriage in Wales.

The opening statement on behalf of the American heirs was presented by John A. Bellatti, and the statement for the English heirs by J. J. Neger. Briefly stated, the claim of the American heirs is that a divorce was secured by Mr. Davies from the first wife and the claim of the English heirs is that the marriage to Sarah Bennett can be clearly proven from the records, and that there is nothing in the English or American court records to prove that a divorce was ever secured by either the husband or wife. Mr. Bellatti emphasized that the finding involved more than the mere title to the acres of land in Morgan county, because it involved the question of the legitimacy of the five American heirs. It seems that Llewellyn Davies was married to Sarah Bennett in Wales in June, 1854, and that his family consisted of his wife and two children. Some time in 1856 or early in 1857 he left his family and came to the United States. He spent a short time in Ohio but soon afterward came to Ashland in Cass county. He had been preceded there by Joseph Edwards, a Welshman whom he knew. After living in Cass county for three years he was married in 1860 to Mrs. Catherine Wilson Combs. His wife died in 1882, leaving three sons and two daughters. Subsequently Mr. Davies was married to Elizabeth Ann Coffman and subsequent to her death he was again married to Louisa Manchester and lived with her until her death.

Mr. Bellatti in his opening statement declared that it will be shown by witnesses that Mr. Davies talked about his first marriage and stated that he had secured a divorce. Further he said it would be shown that prior to the marriage to Catherine Wilson Combs that he waited for some time for her to secure a divorce and that if he had never been divorced himself that it is not reasonable to suppose he would have used care with reference to his wife's standing before the law. Mr. Bellatti also claimed that there was no record of the first marriage which complied in all details with English law.

Claims Proof of Marriage. Mr. Neger in his statement set forth that the marriage to Sarah Bennett in Wales had been proven by the proper records and that a full investigation of court records in Wales and in Cass, Mason, Menard and Morgan counties in this state failed to show the record of any divorce having been secured. He read from a record in the present hearing wherein the American heirs set forth the fact that when the estate began to be administered upon in the county court, that they had no knowledge of the existence of any English heirs, and having been informed about them, were willing that the American and English heirs should share alike in the state; but that the American heirs were not willing to concede that the marriage to Catherine Wilson Combs was illegal. From Mr. Neger's view the whole case hinges upon the question as to whether or not any record can be shown to prove that divorce was ever secured either by Sarah Bennett Davies or by Llewellyn Davies.

GOOD ABILITY SHOWN MONDAY NIGHT BY PUPILS IN SPELLING CONTEST

Margaret Johnson is First and William Sellers Second—Twenty-Eight Spelled List of 700 Words.

Margaret Johnson was first, William Sellers, second, and Beulah Dyer, third, in the final spelling contest, held Monday evening in the David Prince school gymnasium before a large audience of parents and friends. The three highest pupils are in the eighth grade. The ability of the contestants as a whole was demonstrated by the fact that the list of 700 words, previously studied, was finished with twenty-eight of the fifty pupils still on the floor. A list of 100 words prepared by Supt. Collins and held in reserve was brought forward when the first list was disposed of. The words were given out by teachers from the four wards, Misses Yeck, Pires, Fox and Long and by Miss Johnson of the David Prince school. Before the contest was begun, several selections were given by the high school band of twenty-five pieces.

Ruth Easton was among the eighth grade pupils left when the first list was completed, in addition to the three mentioned above. The seventh grade pupils remaining were Caroline Lander, Eunice Harvey, Helen Ellis and Richard Hyer. Those who completed the list in the wards were:

First ward: Verna Grimmett, Vivian Pires, Dorothy Green and Isabel DeFrates.

Second ward: Lila Elliott, Edith Putnam, Lella Putnam, Dorothy Cully, Irma Leedy and Genevieve Rodriguez.

Third ward: Edith Royle, Lucile Hunter, Ruth Wilkinson, Ruth Dewart and Clara Gause.

Fourth ward: Helen Kamm, Lois Harney, Portia Brockman, Cleo Clark and Velma Barker. Portia Brockman stood the longest among pupils of the ward schools.

At the close of the contest a luncheon was served to the contestants by the third year students of the domestic science department under the direction of Miss Ella Newman. The luncheon was well prepared and handily served and proved a very pleasing event.

Judges in the contest were Miss Helen F. Calky, assistant principal of the central building, Miss Agnes Lusk, grade supervisor, and the ward school principals, Miss Clara C. Cobb of the Jefferson school, Miss Agnes M. Paxton of the Lafayette school, Mrs. Edith Dunlap, of Franklin school, Miss Laura White, Washington school and Miss Elizabeth Higler, Morton school.

If bonds are authorized at the election Tuesday, May 16th the money will be honestly expended for the upbuilding of the city. Don't let Jacksonville stand still.

YOUNG MEN'S BOOSTER CLUB ENDORSES THE BOND ISSUE

Goes on Record Monday Evening as First "Know Your City" Dinner—Mayor Rodgers Explains Intent of Project and Way in Which Money Would Be Apportioned.

The proposed issue of bonds for $100,000 to clear the city of floating indebtedness, provide adequate fire protection and better the lighting and water system was endorsed by unanimous vote at the first of a series of "know your city" dinners, held Monday night at the Peacock Inn by the Young Men's Booster club. Mayor H. J. Rodgers spoke of the history of previous bond issues and submitted statistics on the difference in outlay for electric current had the city abandoned its plant when proposed two years ago.

The next "know your city" luncheon will be held early in June at the Pacific hotel. At each of the dinners it is proposed that some well informed citizen shall speak on a vital phase of the municipal life.

Jay Rodgers, as chairman of the committee on constitution, gave his report and after brief discussion constitution and by-laws were adopted by "The Young Men's Booster club of Jacksonville." The secretary's report was given by E. V. Bassett. George W. Vasconcellos, the president, announced the following committee:

Executive—George W. Vasconcellos, John W. Larson, E. V. Bassett, C. M. Bell, L. T. Potter, E. M. Spink, and J. O. Monroe.

Good roads—Lloyd Vieira, J. V. Kennedy and H. Jay Rodgers, chairman. This standing committee will be assisted by a special committee of which Mr. Rodgers will act as chairman, to consist of H. C. Phelps, H. C. Gay, R. Y. Rowe and C. M. Bell.

Membership—John W. Larson, chairman, Fred E. Darr and Harry Roach.

Finance—E. V. Bassett, Marcy W. Osborne and Wilfred Ayers.

In enumerating the factors which make a bond issue desirable, Mr. Rodgers mentioned the large floating indebtedness, the deficit of $22,000 caused by defalcation and the serious handicap which any city administration must be under which finds it necessary to anticipate next year's taxes to the extent of seventy-five per cent. He told how the securing of two auto fire trucks and the equipment of the water tower on City place would add to the efficacy of the fire protection of Jacksonville and assured his hearers that such an expenditure would be well justified in view of the practical certainty that insurance rates will be raised if better protection is not afforded.

"If the people of Jacksonville vote the bond issue, we will do the best we can with the money provided for Jacksonville's improvement. If the people do not vote the money, we will, as in the past, continue to do the best we can with the resources at hand."

W. H. DANIELS DROWNED IN IDAHO LAKE SATURDAY

Deceased a Brother of Mrs. W. S. Camp—Became Wealthy Mineral Land Owner After Leaving Jacksonville.

W. S. Camp has received a telegram announcing the death of W. H. Daniels, his brother-in-law, who was drowned in Lake Couer D'Alene, Idaho, Saturday. The news was sent by Miss Fannie Daniels, his sister, who stated that the body had not been recovered, tho a number of searchers were at work in an effort to locate it. It is thought that Mr. Daniels was crossing the lake from his sister's summer home to his ranch when a storm broke and his launch was capsized.

Mr. Daniel resided for a number of years in Jacksonville. He attended school here and later was a dyer at Capps' mills. After leaving Jacksonville he settled at Duluth where he acquired iron land and attained a competence.

A few years ago he removed with his sisters to Spokane Wash., where two members of the family already resided. Since that time he and his five sisters have resided in Spokane in the winter and at Lake Couer D'Alene, Idaho, during the summer. The past winter Mr. Daniels and his sister Miss Nell visited at the home of their sister Mrs. W. S. Camp. They left about the middle of March in company with Mrs. Camp and son John for a trip to the Pacific coast, arriving in Spokane about April 10, where Mrs. Camp expects to remain until September.

Mr. Daniels was about 60 years of age and was a generous and public spirited man. He was especially kind to his sisters and did everything in his power for them. For several years he struggled thru adversity but finally became quite wealthy. While he has for a number of years made his home in Spokane he has always retained his residence in Duluth. He had extensive property interests in Minnesota, Spokane, Idaho and Oakland Calif. He is survived by six sisters, five residing in Spokane and one Mrs. W. S. Camp of this city and one brother who lives in San Francisco.

About fifteen years ago he went to California where he has since followed the occupation of contractor and builder.

A HUMANE SOCIETY FOR JACKSONVILLE

Steps Taken At A Meeting Looking Toward That Very Desirable End.

For many years different persons have expressed regret that there was no Humane Society in the city to take the part of overworked and abused horses and to protect the lives of birds while cruelty to children could also well be incorporated in the scope of such an organization. No one seemed ready to take the lead and see to it till recently Miss Florence Ward became deeply interested in the matter, was appointed on the police force and has done good work since.

Feeling that a formal organization would be a wise step Miss Ward asked a number of persons interested as she is in the matter to meet at her home last evening and discuss the subject. There was a gratifying attendance and all present expressed an earnest desire to have such a society formed. The cause of the abused and mistreated horses and the birds was defended and all present evince an earnest desire to have something definite done. It was also deemed best to have a public mass meeting to take up the matter more fully and to form an organization in which every one would have an opportunity to have a voice. Accordingly a committee was appointed to select a time and place which would be as convenient as possible for the largest number and due notice of this gathering, time and place, will be published. Meanwhile it is earnestly desired that all persons interested in such a laudable undertaking do all possible to arouse an interest in the work and in securing a large attendance at the meeting.

I. W. C. DRAMATIC CLUB SCORES SUCCESS IN SHAKESPERIAN ROLE

"Much Ado About Nothing" Given Monday Evening Before Appreciative Audience at Music Hall.

"Much Ado About Nothing" presented Monday evening at Music hall by members of the Dramatic club of Illinois Woman's College, proved fully the ability of the young women in Shakesperian repertoire. For the success of the production much credit is due Miss Mabel Louise Glickler, head of the department of expression, who was unremitting in her toil during the days of training.

Miss Phyllis Wilkinson made a beautiful Beatrice. She was completely immersed in the illusion of her part—the haughty, gay, whimsical, sarcastic, tender creature Beatrice is meant to be. Lavina Jones as Benedick was tall and striking. Her sonorous tones and swinging stride, her courtly bow and ready hand on the halbert made her realistically manly and proved her a noble suitor for the hand of Beatrice.

The part of Hero was taken in a manner at once pleasing and charming by Miss Corinne Hughes. There was real pathos manifest in Miss Hughes' acting in the wedding scene. Worthy of especial mention also was the work of Miss Ruth Grantham as Friar Francis and of Miss Katherine Long as Borachio. The court singers sang "Heigh, Nonny-Nonny" with unusual sweetness and richness of tone. The cast as a whole was well balanced and the play was carried thru with a smoothness and dispatch which spoke well of the training of each performer. The simplicity of the Elizabethan period was evidenced in the stage setting. The costumeing was little short of gorgeous, beautiful in its colors and very becoming to the wearers.

Following is the cast:

Members of the Cast.
Don Pedro, Prince of Aragon—Mary Fowler.

Don John, his bastard brother—Frances Smith.

Claudio, a young lord of Florence—Ruth Taylor.

FREIGHT CONGESTED IN EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix E. Farrell have returned from a visit of two weeks in the east. They spent most of the time in Philadelphia but were in New York for a number of days. Mr. Farrell said yesterday that one of the most notable things in the east is the congestion of freight traffic. There is such a scarcity of cars that manufacturers will not accept orders with any specifications for prompt shipment. This is true partially because of the large amount of grain awaiting ocean transportation and also because of heavy shipments of war munitions and of manufactured products in general.

A HANDSOME GIFT.

Mrs. Charles A. Barnes Presents the Douglas Hotel a Bust of the Illinois Senator for Whom the Hotel Is Named.

A short time since it was suggested that it would be a very suitable movement to place a bust of the illustrious senator, Stephen A. Douglas, in the hotel named in honor of that gentleman but so far nothing had been done about it till yesterday morning when Mrs. Charles A. Barnes called up Manager George W. Scott of the hotel and in the name of her honored and deceased husband, presented the hotel a bust of Douglas.

It is needless to add that Mr. Scott was much delighted and took the bust at once to the hotel yesterday morning and will have it placed on a pillar in the main office of the hotel. The bust of the senator is an excellent piece of work, a correct likeness done and will be greatly prized by Mr. Scott and the owners of the hotel and at the same time it will be an honor to the city.
